Headline: Non-Mainstream Pooled Investments

17 February 2016

The Board notes the rules of the FCA on the promotion of non-mainstream pooled investments, effective from 1 January 2014. The Board confirms that it conducts the Company's affairs, and intends to continue to conduct its affairs, so that the Company's shares will be ''excluded securities'' under the FCA's new rules. This is on the basis that the Company, which is resident outside the EEA, would qualify for approval as an investment trust by the Commissioners for HMRC under sections 1158 and 1159 of the Corporation Tax Act 2010 if resident and listed in the United Kingdom. Therefore, the Company's shares do not amount to non-mainstream pooled investments. Accordingly, promotion of the Company's shares is not subject to the FCA's restriction on promotion of non-mainstream pooled investments.
