Novation of investment advisory agreement

20 April 2017

The Company has today approved the novation of its investment advisory agreement from Gravis Capital Partners LLP to Gravis Capital Management Limited, as part of the transfer of the investment adviser's fund management and advisory business from a limited liability partnership to a newly-incorporated limited company under substantially the same ownership.

All other contractual arrangements in the investment advisory agreement including fees, term, key persons and service provision remain unchanged.
