Strictly Private and Confidential

26 April 2021

Dear Sir/Madam

Project Gemini

This letter sets out the basis upon which we have agreed to disclose to each other certain confidential information for the purposes of considering the potential formation of a consortium comprising you and us (or our respective Affiliates) (the "Consortium") to be formed to explore a possible offer by the Consortium for a target the identity of which is known to you and us (the "Target") (the "Proposed Transaction") and to keep all other information relating to the Proposed Transaction confidential.

In this letter references to:

- "Affiliate" means with respect to any person: (i) as regards any undertaking (as defined in section 1161(1) of the Companies Act 2006), an undertaking which is from time to time a parent undertaking or a subsidiary undertaking of that undertaking or a subsidiary undertaking of any such parent undertaking; and (ii) any other person who, directly or indirectly, otherwise Controls, is Controlled by, or is under common Control with such first person;
- "Authorised Representatives" means, in relation to each party, such of (i) its members, officers, employees or agents, (ii) its Affiliates, (iii) its professional or financial advisers, (iv) professional providers of debt finance (and their professional or financial advisers) (provided that each party shall consult with the other in connection with applicable restrictions under the Code before any Confidential Information is shared with any such person and for these purposes we agree to your sharing of Confidential Information on the terms of this letter with a provider of debt finance appointed by you on or before the date of this letter and identified as such to us, such person therefore being an "Authorised Representative"), and (v) the members, officers, employees or agents of its Affiliates and their professional or financial advisers, in each case whose knowledge of the Confidential Information is necessary for the evaluation and negotiation of the Proposed Transaction;
- "business day" means a day other than a Saturday, a Sunday or a public holiday in Amsterdam, the Netherlands and London;
- "Code" means the City Code of Takeovers and Mergers as from time to time amended and interpreted by the Panel;
- "Confidential Information" has the meaning set out under paragraph 1.1 below;
- "Control" means, in respect of any person, the power, directly or indirectly and by whatever means or arrangement:

- (A) to manage or govern such person, or to appoint the managing and governing bodies of such person or a majority of the members of such managing or governing bodies, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise (for this purpose a limited partnership shall be deemed to be controlled by its general partner or any permanent and exclusive manager or investment adviser of such limited partnership);
- (B) to appoint or remove or control the appointment or removal of:
- (i) directors on the person's board of directors or its other governing body (including, in the case of a limited partnership, of the board or other governing body of its general partner) who are able (in the aggregate) to exercise more than 50% of the voting power at meetings of that board or governing body in respect of all or substantially all matters;
 - (ii) any managing member of such person;
 - (iii) in the case of a limited partnership, its general partner or any permanent and exclusive manager or investment adviser of such limited partnership; or
 - (iv) in the case of a trust, its trustee and/or manager; or
- (C) to exercise a dominant influence over the person (otherwise than solely as a fiduciary) by virtue of the provisions contained in its constitutional documents (or, in the case of a trust, trust deed) pursuant to applicable governance rights or delegated authority in respect of such person or pursuant to an agreement or arrangement with other shareholders, partners, members or beneficiaries of such person, and "Controlled" shall be construed accordingly;

- "Disclosing Party" refers to either you or us and means the party which discloses the relevant Confidential Information or to which the relevant Confidential Information relates;
- "each party" means you and us;
- "Panel" means the UK Panel on Takeovers and Mergers;
- "Purpose" has the meaning set out under paragraph 2.6 below;
- "Recipient Party" refers to either you or us and means the party which receives the relevant Confidential Information, or has the Confidential Information in its possession or under its control;
- "subsidiary undertaking" and "parent undertaking" have the meanings given to them in section 1162 of the Companies Act 2006 and, for the purposes only of the membership requirement in subsections 1162(2)(b) and (d), an undertaking (the "first undertaking") shall be treated as a parent undertaking of another undertaking (the "second undertaking") if the shares in the second undertaking are registered in the name of another person (or its nominee), where the shares are held by such other person (or its nominee) by way of security or in connection with the taking of security from the first undertaking;
- "us" (or related expressions) means APG Asset Management N.V.; and
- "you" (or related expressions) means the legal entity named as the recipient of this letter.

In consideration for us making certain information available to you, and you making certain information available to us, on the terms of this letter, each party agrees as follows.

1. Provision of Confidential Information

1.1 Each party acknowledges and agrees that it and its Authorised Representatives will acquire from the other party and its Authorised Representatives information about the Proposed Transaction and/or the other party and/or its Affiliates which is confidential and that the unauthorised disclosure or use of such information by the Recipient Party and/or its respective Authorised Representatives would damage the Disclosing Party's interests. Subject to paragraph 1.2 below, this information and:

- the existence and nature of the negotiations in relation to the Proposed Transaction;
- the contents of this letter;
- all information in any form relating to the Proposed Transaction and/or to any Disclosing Party and its Affiliates which is provided to the Recipient Party and/or its Authorised Representatives or their respective employees, agents or professional advisers by the Disclosing Party or their Authorised Representatives in the course of the Proposed Transaction and all copies of all such information in whatever form; and
- all reports, analyses, memoranda and other documents prepared by the Recipient Party or its Authorised Representatives which derive from, contain, reflect or utilise any of the information described above is collectively referred to in this letter as "Confidential Information".

1.2 Confidential Information does not include any information which:

- at the time of disclosure to the Recipient Party or its Authorised Representatives is in the public domain or subsequently becomes part of the public domain other than by reason of any breach of the terms of this letter by the Recipient Party or its Authorised Representatives;
- was lawfully in the Recipient Party's possession or its Authorised Representatives' possession prior to disclosure, or after the time of disclosure is lawfully obtained by the Recipient Party or its Authorised Representatives through any third party source who is not actually known by Recipient Party or its Authorised Representatives to be bound by a legal or contractual obligation of confidentiality with respect to such information; or
- is independently developed by the Recipient Party or its Authorised Representatives without use or reference to any Confidential Information.

2. Confidentiality

2.1 The Recipient Party agrees to keep the Confidential Information strictly confidential and not to disclose it (whether in writing, orally or otherwise), in whole or in part, save in accordance with paragraphs 2.2 and 2.3 below, to anyone other than the Recipient Party's Authorised Representatives.

- 2.2 The Recipient Party and its Authorised Representatives shall be entitled to disclose Confidential Information to a third party where such disclosure is:
- requested or required by any court of competent jurisdiction or any competent judicial, governmental, supervisory or regulatory body or stock exchange; or
 - required by any law or regulation of any country with jurisdiction over the Recipient Party's affairs or, as the case may be, the relevant Authorised Representative's affairs.
- 2.3 If, however, the Recipient Party proposes to make any disclosure in the circumstances contemplated by paragraph 2.2, the Recipient Party will (to the extent reasonably practicable and permitted by law or applicable legislation):
- give the Disclosing Party prompt written notice of any such request, court order, summons or notice of governmental action, as the case may be, seeking the disclosure of any of the Confidential Information, so as to permit the Disclosing Party to consider whether there are appropriate grounds on which to object to such disclosure and (unless it is unreasonable or would cause the Recipient Party to breach any applicable law or regulatory or governmental requirement for it to do so) the Recipient Party will assist the Disclosing Party in making any such objection (at the Disclosing Party's expense);
 - subject always to any time or other restrictions imposed on the Recipient Party by any court, stock exchange, law or regulation, and to the extent reasonably practicable in the circumstances, consult with the Disclosing Party as to the proposed form, timing and terms of such disclosure (which in any event shall only include such Confidential Information as is required by the relevant court, body, regulation, law or rule to be disclosed); and
 - use all reasonable endeavours to maintain, as far as practicable, the confidentiality of the information disclosed and, in particular, to obtain an order or other reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded to such portion of the disclosed information as the other party may reasonably designate.
- 2.4 If the Recipient Party is not able to inform the Disclosing Party before any Confidential Information is disclosed under paragraph 2.3 the Recipient Party will (to the extent permitted by law or applicable legislation) inform the Disclosing Party as soon as practicable after the disclosure is made of the circumstances of the disclosure and the Confidential Information that has been disclosed.
- 2.5 The Recipient Party agrees to ensure that its Authorised Representatives are aware of and comply with the Recipient Party's confidentiality obligations under this letter and any action by them in respect of such confidentiality obligations will be treated as the Recipient Party's action for the purposes of this letter.
- 2.6 The Confidential Information may only be used in connection with the Recipient Party's evaluation, negotiation, structuring, financing and/or completion of the Proposed Transaction (the "Purpose"). The Confidential Information must not be used for any other purpose, including (without limitation) any competitive or commercial purpose or in any manner whatsoever which is, or is likely to be, directly or indirectly detrimental to the business of the Disclosing Party or any of its Affiliates (but for the avoidance of doubt this shall not prevent in any way either party from pursuing the Proposed Transaction or any alternate proposal other than as part of the Consortium in circumstances where this is not prohibited by the terms of this Agreement).

- 2.7 Where the Confidential Information is also privileged or refers to other documents which may be privileged, the waiver of such privilege is limited to the purposes of this letter and does not and is not intended to result in any wider waiver of the privilege. Accordingly, the Recipient Party and each of its Authorised Representatives shall take all reasonable steps to protect the privilege of the Disclosing Party and its Affiliates in the Confidential Information, and shall advise the Disclosing Party promptly in writing of any step taken by any other party to obtain any of the privileged Confidential Information.
- 2.8 The Confidential Information shall remain the exclusive property of the Disclosing Party and neither the Recipient Party nor its Authorised Representatives shall acquire any intellectual property rights or other proprietary rights in the Confidential Information except to the extent that such rights are conferred on the Recipient Party under any other agreement relating to the Proposed Transaction.

3. Security and destruction

- 3.1 Each party will ensure that all Confidential Information acquired by it or its Authorised Representatives (including (without limitation) any Confidential Information stored on any drive, memory stick, disk, tape or other device) is kept in a secure place at all times and is properly protected against theft, damage, loss or unauthorised access (including access by electronic means).
- 3.2 The Recipient Party will notify the Disclosing Party promptly if it becomes aware that any of the Confidential Information has been disclosed to or obtained by any other party (otherwise than as permitted by this letter).
- 3.3 The Recipient Party and its Authorised Representatives will, on written demand by the Disclosing Party, at any time and/or for any reason:
- return to the Disclosing Party or destroy (at the Recipient Party's option) all Confidential Information; and/or
 - use all reasonable endeavours to destroy or permanently erase any documents, drives, memory sticks, disks or tapes to the extent containing, or derived from, any Confidential Information; and/or
 - delete all Confidential Information from any of its computer, word processor or other information retrieval systems and those of their Affiliates; and/or
 - use all reasonable endeavours to ensure that anyone to whom it or its Authorised Representatives have supplied any Confidential Information destroys or permanently erases such information.

All of this will be done as soon as reasonably practicable following such demand.

- 3.4 Notwithstanding paragraph 3.3, the Recipient Party or any of its Authorised Representatives (as the case may be) may:
- retain any Confidential Information as may be required by law, regulation or any bona fide internal compliance procedure;

- retain electronic files containing Confidential Information created pursuant to automatic archiving and back-up procedures; and
- retain any Confidential Information contained in any board or committee minutes or papers.

3.5 Any Confidential Information which is retained will be used solely for the purposes specified in paragraph 3.4 above and for no other purpose.

4. Announcements and disclosure

4.1 Save as required by any applicable law or regulation or by any competent regulatory authority, neither party will make, or permit or procure to be made, or solicit or assist anyone else to make, any announcement or disclosure relating to the Proposed Transaction without the other party's prior written consent (which may be given on such terms as that other party considers appropriate).

4.2 If any such announcement is required to be made by one of the parties, that party will (to the extent legally permissible) consult with the other party as to the terms of the announcement (which in any event will only include such Confidential Information as is required by the relevant law or court or rule to be disclosed).

5. Inside information

5.1 The parties hereby acknowledge and confirm that the Confidential Information to which it and/or its respective Affiliates may receive may be considered inside information for the purposes of the Market Abuse Regulation (EU) 596/2014 ("MAR").

5.2 Each party confirms that it and its Affiliates are aware of the applicable laws in respect of such inside information, including, without limitation, MAR and the Criminal Justice Act 1993 (together "Applicable Laws") and that it will treat such Confidential Information in accordance with Applicable Laws.

6. Standstill

6.1 For the period (the "Standstill Period") commencing on the date of this letter and ending on the earlier of: (i) the completion of the Proposed Transaction; (ii) the date that a party notifies the other in writing that it is no longer actively considering the Proposed Transaction; (iii) subject to paragraph 7 below, the date that a party notifies the other in writing that it will not participate in the Consortium with respect to the Proposed Transaction; and (iv) six months from the date of this letter, each party shall not, and shall use reasonable endeavours to procure that none of their respective concert parties whose actions the Panel confirms could have consequences for the Proposed Transaction pursuant to Rules 4, 5, 6, 9 or 11 of the Code shall, either alone or acting in concert with other persons, directly or indirectly, without the other party's prior written consent:

- acquire, offer to acquire, agree to acquire or procure or induce another person to acquire, any interest(s) in voting equity securities of the Target;
- do or omit to do any act as a result of which a party or any of its concert parties may acquire any interest(s) in voting equity securities of the Target;
- announce, make, or procure or induce any other person to announce or make, any firm or possible offer (other than any possible offer required to be made under the Code) for all or any of the shares of the Target or do or omit to do any act as a result of which a party or any of its concert parties may become obliged (under the Code or otherwise) to make an offer for all or any of the voting equity securities of the Target; or

- enter into any agreement, arrangement or understanding (whether legally binding or not) with any person relating to or connected with any of the foregoing.

6.2 If a party acquires an interest in securities of the Target in contravention of this letter, such party must immediately inform the other party and (following consultation with the Panel, where necessary) such party must, if requested by the Panel or the other party, dispose or use reasonable endeavours to procure the disposal of such interest to independent third parties as soon as it is lawful to do so. Pending such disposal, such party shall not, and shall use reasonable endeavours to procure that its concert parties shall not, exercise any rights attached to any such interest in securities.

6.3 You hereby confirm that neither you nor, so far as you are aware, any of your Affiliates nor any of your concert parties have any interest in the securities of the Target, and neither you nor, as far as you are aware, any of your Affiliates or any of your concert parties have had any dealing in the securities of the Target in the previous 12 months.

6.4 The restrictions in paragraph 6.1 shall not apply (i) so as to prevent a party or a party's concert parties from participating in any issuance of new voting equity securities by the Target, (ii) so as to prevent a party's concert parties from taking any action in the normal course of their investment or advisory business, provided such action did not arise, directly or indirectly, from the instructions of, or otherwise in conjunction with or on behalf of, that party, (iii) to any associated company to which the Panel has agreed it is not necessary to send a stop notice or to which the Code otherwise does not require a stop notice to be sent, or (iv) to any associated company which is not aware of the Proposed Transaction until such time as the associated company receives a stop notice in respect of the Proposed Transaction (it being acknowledged and agreed that the parties will use all reasonable endeavours:

- to send (or procure the sending of) stop notices to such of their associated companies as the Panel may require, or as otherwise required under the Code, as soon as reasonably practicable following the earlier of (a) the Consortium making or announcing a firm intention to make a general offer to acquire shares in the Target or (b) the Consortium being named as potential offerors pursuant to rule 2.4 of the Code or making an announcement under rule 2.4 of the Code); or
- otherwise to restrict the dealings of any of its concert parties whose actions the Panel confirms could have consequences for the Proposed Transaction pursuant to Rules 4, 5, 6, 9 or 11 of the Code.

6.5 In this paragraph 6:

- “acting in concert” has the meaning given in and shall be construed in accordance with the Code from time to time;
- “associated company” means, in relation to you or your Affiliates: (i) your and your Affiliates’ associated companies or entities; and (ii) any portfolio company in which you or your Affiliates, or any funds managed or advised by you or your Affiliates, or any of your, or your Affiliates’, associated companies or entities, have an equity or any other interest;

- “concert party” means any person deemed or presumed to be acting in concert with the relevant party;
- “interests in securities” has the meaning given in and shall be construed in accordance with the Code from time to time;
- “offer” means a general, partial, tender or other type of offer including, without limitation, an acquisition, takeover or merger transaction (however effected), reverse takeover, scheme of arrangement or other court scheme, offer by a parent company for shares in its subsidiary undertaking, share exchange or similar transaction; and
- “Standstill Period” has the meaning given in paragraph 6.1.

7. Exclusivity

7.1 Each party hereby agrees and undertakes to the other party that for a period of 6 months from the date of this letter (or such longer period as may be agreed by the parties) (the “Exclusivity Longstop Date”):

- other than as part of the Consortium, it will not, and will procure that none of its Affiliates will, directly or indirectly, enter into or continue discussions or negotiations with, or provide any information to or enter into an agreement with any other person in relation to the making of an offer or partial offer for the issued share capital of the Target, or any transaction designed to achieve a similar outcome to any of the foregoing (an “Alternative Proposal”);
- other than as part of the Consortium, it will not, and will procure that none of its Affiliates will, directly or indirectly, pursue the Proposed Transaction or any Alternative Proposal;
- it will not, and will procure that none of its Affiliates will, directly or indirectly solicit, encourage or otherwise facilitate any enquiries or the making of any offer or proposal by another person with respect to an Alternative Proposal; and
- it will, and will procure that each of its Affiliates will, ensure that all discussions with the board of directors of the Target or the Target’s advisers regarding the Proposed Transaction are undertaken jointly by you and us (or our respective Affiliates) or our respective advisers.

8. Source of information and copies

8.1 The Recipient Party shall apply for any Confidential Information it requires from, and shall direct all enquiries concerning any Confidential Information supplied to it to, Robert-Jan Foortse in the case of us and Michael Vrana in the case of you. The Disclosing Party may withhold any Confidential Information requested by the Recipient Party if it reasonably believes such information is not required for the furtherance of the Proposed Transaction.

8.2 The Recipient Party will not, and will direct that each of its Authorised Representatives who is its director or employee will not, take or make any copies, notes or records of the Confidential Information or any of it, or authorise any other person to do so, other than for the Purpose or for the purpose of supplying the Confidential Information to its Authorised Representatives and will ensure that all such copies, notes or records are clearly marked as being confidential.

9. Responsibility for evaluation

9.1 The Recipient Party acknowledges that documents, whether containing Confidential Information or otherwise, made available to it or its Authorised Representatives before, in the course of, or for the purpose of, negotiations relating to the Proposed Transaction will not constitute an offer, inducement or invitation by, or on behalf of, the Disclosing Party, any Affiliate or any of its or their officers, employees or advisers, nor will such documents, nor the information contained in them, form the basis of any representation or warranty in or in relation to any contract.

9.2 The Recipient Party will be responsible for making its own evaluation of the Confidential Information and participating in the Proposed Transaction. The Recipient Party accepts that no liability for any direct, indirect or consequential loss or damage whatsoever, whether in contract, tort or otherwise and including liability for negligent misstatement, is accepted by or on behalf of the Disclosing Party or any Affiliate or any of its or their officers, employees or professional advisers for the accuracy or completeness of any of the Confidential Information or for any opinions expressed by or on behalf of the Disclosing Party or any of them or for any errors, omissions or misstatements. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph 9.2 does not exclude or limit any liability for fraudulent misrepresentation.

10. Costs

Each party is responsible for its own costs in evaluating and negotiating the Proposed Transaction and in complying with the terms of this letter.

11. Term

The obligations undertaken by each party on the terms of this letter will (save as otherwise provided in this letter) continue until the earlier of (i) the date falling 24 months after the date of this letter or (ii) date falling 12 months after completion of the Proposed Transaction (notwithstanding the return or destruction of Confidential Information and any copies of it).

12. Validity

If any provision of this letter is held to be invalid or unenforceable, then that provision will (so far as it is invalid or unenforceable) be given no effect and will be deemed not to be included in this letter, but without invalidating any of the remaining provisions of this letter. In those circumstances, the relevant party will promptly advise the other party about the invalidity or unenforceability.

13. Remedies

Each party accepts that damages may be an insufficient remedy for any harm suffered by a party caused by any breach of the terms of this letter by the other party or its Authorised Representatives and that the party not in default will be entitled to seek other remedies, including (without limitation) the remedies of injunction and specific performance, in the event such a breach occurs or is threatened.

14. Trading

14.1 None of the provisions of this letter shall in any way limit: (i) the trading of any residential or commercial mortgage backed securities or other similar instruments ("CMBS") by you or your Affiliates in the ordinary course of your or their business (including, without limitation, any CMBS which includes any loan or other debt instrument issued or held by us or any of our Affiliates or the Target or any of its Affiliates (the "Target Group") or any debt instrument collateralized by one or more of the properties held by us or our Affiliates or the Target Group), (ii) pursuing, facilitating or entering into a transaction involving the purchase, sale or origination by you or your Affiliates of (A) any security or debt instrument issued or held by us or any of our Affiliates or subsidiaries or the Target Group, (B) any debt instrument held by a third party which is collateralized by one or more of the properties held by us or our Affiliates or the Target Group, or (C) any third party's interest in one or more of the properties held by us or our Affiliates or the Target Group, (iii) the trading of any debt instrument or equity investment that is currently owned by you or your Affiliates, or (iv) the trading of any debt instrument or equity investment for which you or your Affiliate was/is the issuer; provided that you agree (on behalf of yourself and your Affiliates) that you and your Affiliates will comply with all applicable securities laws in conducting such transactions.

15. Scope of letter

15.1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary provided elsewhere herein, none of the provisions of this letter shall in any way limit the activities of The Blackstone Group Inc and its affiliates in their businesses distinct from the real estate business of The Blackstone Group Inc (the "Real Estate Business"), provided that the Confidential Information is not made available to Authorised Representatives of The Blackstone Group Inc and its Affiliates who are not involved in the Real Estate Business. Should any Confidential Information be made available to an Authorised Representative of The Blackstone Group Inc and its affiliates who is not involved in the Real Estate Business, such Authorised Representative shall be bound by this letter in accordance with its terms. Should the Confidential Information be made available to an individual at an affiliate of The Blackstone Group Inc who is not involved in the Real Estate Business solely for the purpose of conflict resolution procedures and determining the proper allocation of investment opportunities then such individual shall be bound by the confidentiality and use provisions of this letter, provided, however, that receipt of Confidential Information by such individual shall not be imputed to the business unit of such individual. In addition, none of the provisions of this letter shall in any way apply to any portfolio company of an affiliate of The Blackstone Group Inc, provided, however, that should the Confidential Information be made available to an Authorised Representatives of any portfolio company of an affiliate of The Blackstone Group Inc, such Authorised Representative shall be bound by this letter in accordance with its terms.

16. General

16.1 No failure or delay by either party in exercising any right, power or privilege under this letter will operate as a waiver of it, nor will any single or partial exercise of it preclude any further exercise or the exercise of any right, power or privilege under this letter or otherwise.

16.2 Each party's rights and remedies under this letter are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law.

16.3 Other than each party's Affiliates (each of which shall have the right to enforce any term of this letter as if it was specifically a party to this letter, on the basis that all acknowledgements, covenants and undertakings by you or us are made for the benefit of each of your or our Affiliates respectively), no person shall have any right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of this letter.

16.4 This letter may not be assigned by a party without the other party's prior written consent.

16.5 This letter can be signed in separate documents in the same form and which together constitute a single agreement.

17. Governing law

- 17.1 This letter (and any non-contractual obligations arising from or in connection with it) shall be governed by English law and this letter shall be construed in accordance with English law.
- 17.2 This letter shall supersede any earlier agreement between the parties as to the confidentiality of information relating to the Proposed Transaction or any part thereof so far as the same shall be inconsistent with the terms of this letter.
- 17.3 In relation to any legal action or proceedings arising out of or in connection with this letter (whether arising out of or in connection with contractual or non-contractual obligations) ("Proceedings"), each of the parties irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts and waives any objection to Proceedings in such courts on the grounds of venue or on the ground that Proceedings have been brought in an inappropriate forum.

18. Notice

- 18.1 Any notice from one party to the other shall be in writing in the English language.
- 18.2 Any notice may be;
- sent by international recognised courier, in which case it shall be deemed to have been given at the time of delivery confirmation to the relevant address; or
 - sent by email, in which case it shall be deemed to have been given at the time of transmission.
- 18.3 Any notice must be sent to the address of the relevant party set out below (or as otherwise notified in writing to the other party):
